

Must-Have Accounts

Every high school student should create student user accounts with the following websites:

- www.collegeboard.org

Navigate the college process, register for the SAT, get AP scores, manage your college lists, complete CSS Profile and much more with a College Board account.

- www.khanacademy.org

Preparing to take the PSAT and SAT? Create a user account with Khan Academy and practice now. This account is free for anyone, anywhere.

- <http://www.parchment.com>

Collect and manage your transcripts in a central online profile where you can send and share them with colleges and universities anytime.

- <https://fafsa.ed.gov>

To receive Federal financial aid, student and parent must create a FSA ID. Its free and secure. Sign-up and then complete the FAFSA.

- www.michigan.gov/studentaid

Sign-up for the MiSSG Student Portal. Access college financial aid records, scholarships and receive information and updates.

- www.fastweb.com

Need some extra money for college? Register with FastWeb to learn about scholarships that are right for you. Easy money.

Other Resources

- www.knowhow2go.org

Get advice about going to college from people who know all about it!

- <https://public.careercruising.com/en/>

Build a plan that connects schoolwork to real life.

- <http://mel.org>

Locate the best pre-planning college guides, practice exams and scholarships here.

- CapCAN's Twitter, Facebook, and Instagram

CapCAN maintains a list over 200 scholarships from local, state and national organizations. We share scholarship deadlines on our Twitter and Facebook. Feel free to follow us!

Promoting college and career readiness and access in the Capital Area

CapCAN

330 Marshall St.
Ste. 203,
Lansing, MI 48912

517-203-5011
strasz@capcan.org
www.capcan.org

GOAL: By 2025, 60% of Capital Area residents will attain a postsecondary degree or valuable credential.

The Capital Area College Access Network (CapCAN) is a collaborative community network dedicated to increasing the college attainment rate in the Capital Area.

College Advisers

CapCAN supports a network of 10 college advisers in 14 schools in Ingham and Eaton Counties. The goal of the College Adviser is to help students navigate the complex college and career exploration process. College advisers are placed in the following high schools:

- Dansville High School
- Charlotte High School
- Eaton Rapids High School
- Holt High School
- Lansing Eastern High School
- Lansing Everett High School
- Lansing J.W. Sexton High School
- Maple Valley High School
- Potterville High School
- Relevant Academy of Eaton County
- Stockbridge High School
- Waverly High School
- Webberville High School
- Wilson Talent Center

* If you don't have a college adviser placed in your high school, speak to your school's guidance counselor.

Your Journey

When considering your journey during and after high school think of your aspirations and dreams. Exploration is the first step for you to determine your post-secondary plans. CapCAN encourages you to follow your dreams when deciding to pursue a post secondary degree or credential. This brochure can help you launch your transition from school to career.